"CHINA'S WONDERLAND."

As Seen by Doctor Dorsey. ✓

Powers Educational Split Reel—Released June 24.

Along the river front of Shanghai, which is the most commercial city in the far east, we see some of the million population, forty thousand of which are Japanese. The Chinese are among the shrewdest traders of the world. Canton, the next view, is the oriental Venice. People here are born, live and die in boats. We see the water front at Singapore on New Year's Day. The wealth of the city is largely Chinese. The ports of China are well protected. Handsome parks and streets characterize this part of China. At the end of the reel we see the water sports at Singapore.
